Version 1.6.2 – August 2024

Not Independent

Focused Financial Advice Pty Ltd, and your adviser, are not able to describe itself as being independent, impartial or unbiased because we:

- ❖ may receive commissions from insurance product providers which may influence the advice provided (Page 3);
- ❖ may receive fees based on the volume of assets under advice (Page 2);
- ❖ may receive gifts and other non-monetary benefits (Page 4); and
- ❖ have an approved product list which influences the range of products our representatives can recommend when providing advice to you (Page 4).

This Financial Services Guide was last updated:

What is a Financial Services Guide?

This Financial Services Guide ('FSG') helps you understand and decide if you wish to use the financial services that we are able to offer you.

The Licensee and its employees (including any employees of a related body corporate) are collectively referred to as "us, we, our" throughout this FSG.

This FSG sets out the services we provide. It tells you:

- ❖ who we are and how we can be contacted;
- ❖ what services and products we are authorised to provide to you;
- ❖ how we (and any other relevant parties) are paid; and
- ❖ how we deal with complaints.

We may provide you with personal advice that takes into account your needs, financial situation and circumstances. Where we provide you with personal advice, we will provide you with a Statement of Advice ('SOA'). The SOA outlines our advice and the basis on which the advice was given. It also outlines relevant information about us, our fees and charges associated with our advice. We are only able to provide personal advice about certain products as stipulated under our Australian Financial Services License ('AFSL').

If we provide further personal advice after providing our initial advice, we may record this in a Record of Advice, instead of an SOA. You may request a record of the further advice that is provided to you, if you haven't already been provided with it. You can also contact us, using the details at the start of this FSG, within 7 years from when the advice is provided, to request this record.

Occasionally we provide general advice. This is where we may express an opinion or recommendation influencing you in making a decision in relation to a financial product, but where we HAVE NOT considered your personal objectives, financial situation or needs. If we provide you with general advice, we will provide you with a warning that the advice may not be appropriate to your needs, financial situation or objectives. Additionally, we will provide you with an applicable Product Disclosure Statement ('PDS') (if one is available) which you should read before making a decision that the product is right for you.

When a financial product is recommended to you, you will be provided with a PDS issued by the product provider. The PDS contains information about the product to assist you in making an informed decision about the financial product. It will outline relevant terms, significant risks, and fees and charges associated with the product.

The Licensee has arrangements in place to maintain professional indemnity insurance. This insurance satisfies the requirements under s912B of the Act.

Please retain this FSG for your reference and any future dealings with us. We may also add documents at a later date which will also form part of this FSG, and these should be read together with the FSG. These documents will include the word 'FSG' in the heading.

Who will be providing the financial services to you?

The Licensee

The Licensee is the authorising licensee for the financial services provided to you and is responsible for those services and is the providing entity.

The Licensee authorises, and is also responsible for, the content and distribution of this FSG.

The Licensee's contact details are as follows:

The Licensee and the Authorised Representatives act on your behalf when we provide financial services to you.

What services and products are we authorised to provide to you?

We are authorised to provide financial product advice and deal in the following financial products:

- ❖ Basic deposit products, and deposit products other than basic deposit products;
- ❖ Debentures, stocks, or bonds, issued, or proposed to be issued, by a government;
- ❖ Life products, including:
 - ◆ Investment life insurance products, as well as any products issued by a Registered Life Insurance Company, that are backed by one or more of its statutory funds; and
 - ◆ Life risk insurance products, as well as any products issued by a Registered Life Insurance Company, that are backed by one or more of its statutory funds;
- ❖ Interests in managed investment schemes, including investor directed portfolio services;
- ❖ Retirement savings accounts (“RSA”) products (within the meaning of the Retirement Savings Account Act 1997);
- ❖ Securities; and
- ❖ Superannuation.

We are authorised to provide these services and products to both retail and wholesale clients.

There is an important difference between ‘general advice’ and ‘personal advice’. If we provide you with ‘general advice’ it means that we have not considered any of your individual objectives, financial situation and needs.

If we provide you with ‘personal advice’ we will consider your individual objectives, financial situation and needs when making our recommendation to you.

We will only provide services to you, with your prior, informed consent. If you do not understand any of the information in this Financial Services Guide, or have any other questions relating to the terms on which we will be acting, please contact us.

In providing our services, other financial matters may arise, however, we are not authorised to assist with any financial products and services except those explained above. You should seek specific advice from the appropriate professionals on other matters relevant to you.

What fees and commissions are payable to us?

Fees for providing you with our services are received by the Licensee.

All fees described in this FSG include GST. Your adviser may be remunerated through either:

- ❖ Flat dollar fee;
- ❖ Hourly rate fee;
- ❖ Percentage fee;
- ❖ Commissions on insurance payments from product providers (where applicable); or
- ❖ Any combination of the above.

Refer to Part II: The Adviser Profile for further information on the fees your adviser may charge. Detailed information about your fees will be outlined in the SOA provided to you. Your express consent to the imposition of any fees must be obtained by your adviser before any fees are charged to you.

The following are examples of fees, which may be charged by your adviser, depending on the financial services you wish to obtain:

Service fees

Your adviser will discuss the fee structure with you, and obtain your agreement, before providing you with any services. The types of fees you can be charged are listed below. You may be charged a combination, or part of, any of these fees.

Fees for advice

Your adviser may charge fees for the preparation, presentation and implementation of our advice. These fees will be based on your individual circumstances, the complexity involved in your situation, and the time it takes to prepare personal financial advice for you.

Your adviser will discuss these fees with you and gain your agreement to the fees before we provide you with advice. The applicable hourly rates may vary depending the adviser which provides these services to you or on their level of expertise.

Ongoing advice fees

Your adviser may charge a fee to provide ongoing portfolio reviews and/or for the provision of ongoing services. This fee will be agreed with you and is either a set amount or an amount based on the amount of funds under our advice, and/or the time involved in reviewing your portfolio and circumstances.

Commissions

If you take out a financial product through us, Focused Financial Advice may receive payments in the form of initial commissions and/or ongoing commissions from the financial product providers. These commissions are included in the fees and premiums you pay for the product. They are not an additional cost to you. We may agree to rebate some or all of these.

The commission payable for different classes of financial products include the following:

Life insurance products

Initial and ongoing commissions from insurance providers may be received by Focused Financial Advice. These commissions are paid to Focused Financial Advice by the company that issues the product that we recommend to you, and they are included in what you pay for the product. The commissions vary and are based on the policy cost, which is the sum of the premiums you pay and may include other fees related to the product.

The initial commission is paid in the first year by the product issuer to Focused Financial Advice. Ongoing commissions are payments paid by product issuers to Focused Financial Advice in the years after the first year.

If you initiate an increase to your cover, Focused Financial Advice may receive an initial commission and ongoing commissions based on the increase to your policy cost. The ongoing commission on a client-initiated increase is only paid in respect of the period that starts from the first anniversary of the increase. See Table below for more information.

How are we and third parties remunerated?

The Licensee's directors and employees are remunerated by salary and may also be awarded an annual bonus. Bonuses will depend on several factors, including:

- ❖ company performance;
- ❖ professionalism and adherence to compliance procedures; and
- ❖ team performance.

The Licensee's shareholders may also receive a benefit based on the Licensee's ongoing company performance.

Focused Financial Advice does not pay or receive any referral fees to third parties. Our Corporate Authorised Representatives may have such arrangements in place. Where these arrangements are in place, they will be outlined in Part II of this FSG.

You may request more details about the way these people or entities are remunerated within a reasonable time after receiving this document and before any financial services are given to you. If remuneration or other benefits are calculable at the time personal advice is given, it will be disclosed at the time that personal advice is given, or as soon as practicable afterwards. If remuneration is not calculable at that time, a statement of how the remuneration is calculated will be given to you at the time the advice is given, or as soon as practicable afterwards.

By using or continuing to use our services, you agree that:

- ❖ All fees and charges received by us as described in this FSG (other than third party fees and charges) are a benefit given to us by you, in exchange for the services provided by us.
- ❖ We do not charge asset-based fees where you are investing using borrowed money.
- ❖ You understand, consent to, authorise, and direct us to charge you in this way.

What arrangements may influence our advice to you?

The Licensee has an Approved Product List which includes a range of financial products from product providers not associated with the Licensee. The Licensee does not require its representatives to recommend products only listed within the APL.

From time to time, we may accept alternative forms of remuneration from product providers or other parties, such as hospitality or support connected with our professional development (e.g. training or sponsorship to attend conferences).

We maintain a register detailing any benefit we receive which is valued at between $100 and $300, and other benefits that relate to information technology, software or support provided by a product issuer, or that relate to educational and training purposes. A copy of the register is available on request for a small charge.

What should you do if you have a complaint?

If you have a complaint, you can contact us and discuss your complaint.

Please contact the Complaints Manager of our Licensee using any of the contact details at the start of this FSG. We will try and resolve your complaint quickly, fairly and within prescribed timeframes.

If the complaint cannot be resolved to your satisfaction within 30 days, you have the right to refer the matter to the Australian Financial
